

Trover Rural Health Interim Session

This program provides opportunities for college students from rural western Kentucky to learn more about rural health and to succeed in medical school.

Requirements:

Graduation from a high school in one of the designated counties

Science, Math and cumulative college GPA ≥ 3.3

Rising sophomore or junior Pre-med (seniors may qualify – contact us)

Demonstrated interest in becoming a physician

Deadline for application is November 23, 2011

Benefits:

One week early January session (during holiday break) in Madisonville with a small stipend and lodging provided

January session includes shadowing physicians and case studies

Individualized recommendation letter for admission to the U of L Medical School

Designated Kentucky counties:

Ballard	Butler
Caldwell	Calloway
Carlisle	Crittenden
Fulton	Graves
Hancock	Hickman
Hopkins	Livingston
Logan	Lyon
Marshall	McCracken
McLean	Muhlenberg
Ohio	Todd
Trigg	Union
Webster

For more information, visit our website at:

<http://ultc.troverhealth.org>

Call Pam Carter
at 800-217-9149
or email pjcarter@trover.org

