

Trover Rural Health Scholar

This program provides opportunities for college students from western Kentucky to learn more about rural health and succeed in medical school.

2010 Trover Rural Scholars and medical students

REQUIREMENTS:

Graduation from a high school in one of the designated counties with GPA ≥ 3.4 and ACT ≥ 24 .

College GPA ≥ 3.0 at a participating college

Demonstrated interest in becoming a physician

Nomination by Pre-med advisor or science faculty

Kentucky Resident

Completion of summer sessions in Madisonville

BENEFITS:

A scholarship grant in each year of college following a summer session

Three week summer sessions in Madisonville with stipend and lodging provided

Summer sessions include rural health studies, shadowing physicians, and academic preparation

Special consideration for admission to the U of L Medical School

For more information, visit our website at <http://uctc.troverhealth.org> or call Pam Carter at 800-217-9149 Deadline is February 15, 2011